Walgreens Flu Shots

Thursday, October 5 from 10am-2pm

Walgreens is partnering with the Library to offer free flu shots! The shots are available on a first come, first served basis and are administered by Walgreens staff. This season's vaccine protects against the three influenza viruses that research indicates will be most common during the season.

Pneumonia and Shingles shots will be available for a small fee. Please bring your Medicare or other insurance card to confirm coverage.

We'll have trunk or treating, costume contests for the kids, crafts, games and much more! All are welcome to attend this FREE kid-friendly event and are encouraged to dress in costume.

Food for Fines

Help our community residents while reducing/eliminating your fines! Bring in your non-perishable food items from November 1-December 16 to earn $1 in fine credit for each item donated. The credit cannot be used at other libraries or for lost or damaged items. As we are donating the collected food to a local pantry, please do not bring expired food or food without labels. Ramen noodles and Kool-Aid are 4 packages/dollar credit (limit 24).

Friends of the Library

You requested, we acted. One of our biggest fundraisers is the books we sell on the Friends Bookcases located in the Café Area. We had received some comments that while people really liked getting their gently used books there, we didn't put new books out quick enough. The supply of books are rotated regularly, so check out our inventory during each visit. The books that are removed are donated to the Salvation Army, but if you have suggestions of another charitable organization that can use the discarded books, please let us know. The book prices range anywhere from 5/$1, to a buck a bag, if we are running a sale. Also, we have been conducting raffles most of this year, tickets are only $1, so please stop by the front desk and buy a ticket.

We are also still selling our candy bars (also at the front desk), but we've added different candy options and nuts. The money raised goes back into the library, and pays for the ice cream social, free coffee in the café area, and to subsidize the cost of library bus trips and holiday parties. We are always looking for new members! Please join us at our Fall/Winter meetings on September 13th and November 8th, at 1pm, in the Library Meeting room.
